BIG FISH

This issue will be more like a spark than a FLASH. Time constraints being what they are during the 'season' it is difficult to do much more. WOW!!! What a first half for the SweepStakes. You MRRC guys really did a job. Our best start during any year within the memory of old timers of the club. The summary follows this piece. You will notice the great number of entries over the 650 gso total. Hard to believe!

You will read this just as you are ready to start the SSB weekend. Remember, entries need to exceed 50kilo points. We're going to win the Medium Club Gavel. We're going to win the Medium Club Gavel! WE'RE GOING TO WIN THE MEDIUM CLUB GAVEL!!!

CHILI AND BEER. Gastroenteritis. At W8LNO on November 22 from 1:00 'til you leave. There will be other eats for the faint of heart. We'll have a big poster for the CW and SSB score write-in and lots of good conversation. This isn't an official meeting, just a chance to enjoy an early reading on our victory over the Society of Midwest Contesters, catch up on gossip and allow the ole fish to say thanks your support. Not a bad way to purge your bowel for the Thanksgiving pigout. Please plan to attend and drop 'LNO a Qsl or catch him on the net to announce your intentions. I need a reasonably accurate headcount by November 20. Directions and map enclosed.

WORLDWIDE SCORES-SSB

N8BJQ A/B SO 962K NBCXX M/S 2,005K

The OM had some other scores but, alas, they have gone the way of so many other scraps of paper. Sorry. We will have a complete report of the WorldWide after the CW weekend. PLEASE! Write your scores on a postcard and send them to W8LNO. Thanks.

There you have it. 2.1 million from twenty reported scores. We are aware of three more scores giving us a nice ssb/cw balancing act. It is having EACH score over 50k that made the difference. An average over 100k is very good when you have 20 entries and no cheating on the reporting. GREAT GOIN' GUYS!
